that we may trust in you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Strengthen for service, Lord,
the hands that have taken holy things;
may the ears which have heard your word
be deaf to clamour and dispute;
may the tongues which have sung your praise
be free from deceit;
may the eyes which have seen the tokens of your love
shine with the light of hope;
and may the bodies which have been fed with your body
be refreshed with the fullness of your life;
glory to you for ever.

Amen.

Message from our Rector, Darren

Today's Gospel (Luke 12.32-40) contains the highly unusual and countercultural image of the master who, on finding his servants waiting vigilantly with their lamps lit, puts on an apron and serves them their meal! In other words, Jesus depicts God as donning his apron and serving a midnight feast to those found alert and expectant! As theologian Patricia Lull points out, this extraordinary role reversal poses some fascinating questions for a Christian congregation:

'Where might the congregation look to see the kind of God who dons an apron and serves those who wait for the things of God? Would that happen in the break room at the nearby office complex, in the cafeteria of the local hospital, in someone's kitchen at home? Where does the simplicity of God's tender assurance intersect with the frenzy and fretting of an anxious world ...

[Moreover] the certainty of God's return as a gracious event, rather than a cause for panic, may invite the congregation to hear in this Gospel text an invitation to a more playful, expectant reading of ordinary time. Which knock at the door brings the bearer of God's good pleasure? What act of generosity or almsgiving frees one to peek through the door of heaven? What small steps indicate a confidence in God's good future for this particular congregation?' (Feasting on the Word)

God bless,

READING Hebrews 11.1-3, 8-16

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old – and Sarah herself was barren – because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, 'as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.' All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

GOSPEL Luke 12.32-40

Jesus said 'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit; be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks. Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them. If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves. 'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

TODAY'S OTHER LECTIONARY TEXTS

READING Genesis 15.1-6

After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.' But Abram said, 'O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?' And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.' But the word of the Lord came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.' He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' And he believed the Lord; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

PSALM 33.12-end

- 12 Happy is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage.
- 13 The Lord looks down from heaven; he sees all humankind.
- 14 From where he sits enthroned he watches all the inhabitants of the earth –
- 15 he who fashions the hearts of them all, and observes all their deeds.
- 16 A king is not saved by his great army; a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.
- 17 The war horse is a vain hope for victory, and by its great might it cannot save.
- 18 Truly the eye of the Lord is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love,
- 19 to deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
- 20 Our soul waits for the Lord; he is our help and shield.
- 21 Our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.
- 22 Let your steadfast love, O Lord, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

WhatsApp Scam - It is rare for us to mention scams but this one is worth drawing to your attention. Firstly to explain WhatsApp is a messaging application or app used only on mobiles. Criminals usually begin a message with 'Hello Mum, Dad etc' saying that they are texting from a new mobile number as the old phone is lost or damaged. They will ask for money to purchase a new phone, or claim that they need money urgently to pay a bill. They provide bank details for the payment to be made to. If you get an unusual request from a family member or friend on WhatsApp do always stop, think and call to speak to the person using the existing number you have for them to check the situation.
