Biographies

Both our Ukrainian performers have found refuge in the UK and are benefiting from the collaborative scheme between the London Performing Academy of Music (LPMAM) and Holy Sepulchre London (the National Musicians' Church at Holborn Viaduct) for a 'conservatoire-in-exile'. The LPMAM/Holy Sepulchre collaboration has enabled students from the Ukraine conservatoires to restart their studies after arriving in Britain under the special visa scheme. Some of the rooms at Holy Sepulchre Church are being set aside for tuition, rehearsal and practice space, and the church is running its own weekly concert series every Thursday to give the students regular performance opportunities.
